

"MAFFI Model A Museum Fashion Cabinet A"

During the end of the 1920's and early 1930's, the fashion industry started to take hold of the new clothing lines. The most efficient methods of advertising their products was by magazine ads. Zippers were used in many clothing articles rather than just shoes. New types of clothing materials were constantly being developed.

"MAFFI Model A Museum Fashion Cabinet A"

1920's Ladies Beaded Evening Gown. Soft pink/beaded/with matching crepe silk slip.

Shoes have a jewel attached to the shoe button.

Donated by: Jan Winslow

Ladies beaded Hand Bag. Handle inside.

Donated By: Jan Winslow

Beaded Shoe Clips

Donated By: Jan Winslow

Ladies Gloves. Opera length

Donated by: Anne Beck

Button Hook

Donated by: Cyndee Mishier

"MAFFI Model A Museum Fashion Cabinet A"

Ladies Black Slippers

Donated by: Gloria Doyle

Ladies three piece Pajama set

Donated by: Gloria Doyle

Early 1930 Sleep Ware this Pajamas, House Coat and Slippers.

